

ONE ON ONE PERSONAL TRAINING

There is nothing more effective. Every new client is offered a Full Health Risk and Fitness Assessment. This allows us to establish your current health status, review your medical history, discover your abilities and limitations, find out what type of exercise you like and dislike, and use this information as a basis from which to prescribe a personal fitness program designed specifically for you.

